

Audiophile Club Constitution

Article I - Name

The name of this club shall be Audiophile Club at University of Washington.

Article II - Purpose

It shall be the purpose of this organization to improve people's knowledge of audio technologies, music creation and to promote diversity in music appreciation.

Article III - Affiliations

There are currently no affiliations.

Article IV - Membership

§1 The majority of the membership of this organization shall consist of regularly enrolled undergraduate and graduate students of the University of Washington. Only those members who are currently registered University of Washington students have voting privileges.

§2 University staff and faculty, and non-University persons may have associate membership status. However, they may not have voting privileges.

Article V - Officers

§1 An officer is responsible for organizing club's activities and its outreach. Officers must communicate with each other and assign roles to themselves.

§2 An officer must be a member of the Audiophile Club with voting rights.

§3 There are no limits to an officer's term of office.

§4 An officer shall be put into proposal for removal if their actions or inactions do not align with the Audiophile Club's purpose, defined in AI§1. Decision of removal shall be made when majority vote, defined in AVI§3, is met. Proposal for removal of an officer can be raised by any member.

Article VI - Voting and Proposals

§1 Any member with voting rights can raise proposals for the club.

§2 A proposal can be raised to address issues including, but not limited to: changing of club's meeting time, operations, new club activities, etc.

§3 Majority vote is defined as $\frac{2}{3}$ (two thirds) or more of the total votes.

Article VII - Meetings

§1 To comply with UW RSO policy guide, any general or special meetings must have half or more than meeting participants be current University of Washington students.

Article VIII - Constitutional Amendments

§1 The constitution may be amended through raising a proposal.

§2 Amendments must be publicly notified a week prior to voting of amendment proposal.